Text: Luke 9:37-48; Matthew 19:13-15; Luke 22:20-24

1. Comparing ourselves to others is a common practice that can lead to frustration, doubt and discouragement. In your opinion, what is the greatest single heart issue at work when we do this?
2. “Self-actualization” is a term that describes a person who is self-secure, not unduly influenced by others and exhibits a healthy level of confidence. This would be a great discussion item for your Oikos. How could you introduce it, especially in the work place?
3. Jesus redefines greatness. He is counter-cultural. How do we struggle with our desire to be “great” (especially in light of contemporary social media), and our biblical understanding of greatness? What specific area(s) of life is this a struggle for you?
4. As friends, comrades in community with one another, how can we help each other become ‘great’ in the eyes of Jesus? Further, how could we then become a GREAT Life Group?
5. What personal characteristics enhance biblical greatness in our lives?
