

Devotional Resources for Kids

Kid's Abide Study Cards - Risen Motherhood

These simple yet effective cards are made to be used with any text from God's word that your family or child is studying. The steps, Read, Observe, Interpret, and Apply help children work through the text. On the back of the card are instructions for each step and simple prompts for engaging children in discussion.

S.O.A.P Bible Study Method

This bible study method is easy for kids to follow, and can be done without any extra material other than your bible and a sheet of paper. The steps include: reading a section of scripture, observing what you find in the text, asking application questions and then praying. By modeling and working through this method with your child, they can start to develop the skills and tools needed to learn how to study the Bible.

The Character of God Study - Daily Grace Co.

This 30 day bible study focuses on the character and attributes of God. This flexible study can be used as a family, to read and discuss together, or for a child to do on their own, and answer the questions right in the book.

I Will Trust You Journal - She Reads Truth

An art and scripture journal that will help kids learn a biblical foundation for trust as they respond to writing and drawing prompts. Each section includes a verse to copy, and a creative art prompt for them to respond to God. There are 30 prompts in all and it also includes short bible stories about people who trusted in God. They also have journals on worship and thankfulness.

Exploring the Bible - David Murray

This workbook leads kids through the bible one day at a time over the course of a year. Each weekly entry includes daily bible readings, prayer points, memory verses, discussion questions and space for sermon notes. This workbook will help kids see the overarching story of God's Word and help lay a foundation for years to come.

The Story of the Bible from A to Z - Daily Grace Co.

A devotional that shows how every part of the Bible points to Jesus! This book includes prayers and discussion questions to go along with each section and can be used for a variety of ages as a family or individually.

Attributes of God Verse Card Set - Daily Grace Co.

This set of cards includes 19 attributes of God with definitions and scripture verses to go along with them. These can be used alongside any bible study in applying the truths of scripture and in showing the true character of God.

31 Days of Prayer Kids Verse Cards - Daily Grace Co.

Each card highlights a different topic and includes scripture and 3 prompts to pray. These cards can be used anywhere, as a family or individually, and helps guide children on how to pray.

Simple Discipleship - Caroline Saunders

A study specifically for kids ages 9-13 that is designed for parents to use with their sons/daughters. This program is a collaborative 22 session inductive study that goes through Psalm 119.

Quiet Time Journal for Kids - Not Consumed

My Time with God is an outline to help your kids study any passage of the Bible. It includes 4 unique templates or methods for studying God's word - they get to pick what text to study!

Biblical Timeline Activity Cards - (Christie Hess)

An interactive way to get kids thinking about how the Bible is one big story that we are currently in the middle of! Print and cut out these flashcards for kids to put in order - starting with Creation and ending with Kingdom of the New Heavens and Earth. Numbering the backs of each card might make it helpful in having them be able to check their accuracy. Have fun as a family ordering and talking about the big story of redemption together!

Bible Skills for Kids

This short booklet provides information to parents on how to teach your kids bible skills, important verses to memorize, a list of foundational bible stories from both the old and new testament, and what to look for in choosing a kids bible.

Empowered - How God Shaped 11 Women's Lives Strong - How God Equipped 11 Men with Extraordinary Power

Catherine Parks

With a book for both girls and boys, Catherine Parks looks at the lives of 11 faithful men and women and how their lives brought glory to God. These stories show how God is the true source of our power, strength and purpose in life.

ESV Illuminated Scripture Journals

These are complete books of the Bible in the ESV version. Each journal includes one book with text on the left side to mark up and highlight, and a blank page on the right, which is a great place to take notes (or apply the Read, Observe, Interpretation, Application steps) or have kids draw pictures to go along with what they are learning.

BibleProject

Bible Project - website

The Bible Project is a website full of short videos on all aspects of the Bible. Although these are not specifically geared toward kids, the videos are engaging and full of gospel truths that apply across all generations. The Bible overviews can be very helpful in understanding the context and purpose of each book of the Bible.

Prayer - A.C.T.S

This printable works through a guided way to pray to the Lord for more than just our wants and needs. It focuses first on adoration - how can we praise God, then confession - what do we need to repent of and ask for forgiveness for, then thanksgiving - what are we thankful for, and then supplication - sharing our requests to the Lord. Print out a stack and put them in a binder or folder for kids to have their own prayer journal.

Sermon Notes

Print this out and bring it along to church to help your older children stay engaged during the sermon. There's even a space to draw a picture and to color.
