GOD IN HUMAN SKIN | DECEMBER 11, 2022

SERMON RECAP | Philippians 2:5-8

Behold the wonder of God becoming a man! Why did God choose this path for Jesus to take on humanity and humble himself? So that we could worship in His presence forever.

THE LEAD IN

- The word “behold” means to gaze on intently or to be captivated by. What do you behold? What things in your life get the most of your attention and time? How have those things shaped you?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read Philippians 2:5-8. Next week we’ll read this again focusing on the humility of Christ’s actions. For today, Jesus in his nature, being, essence and form was fully divine yet willfully became a man. Why was this necessary? Why is this something for us to behold?
- Hebrews 9:1-28 alludes to the separation between God and man before Christ and then talks about the power of the blood of Christ and what it does. What stands out to you most in this chapter? What does it cause you to behold about Christ?

GOING DEEPER

- Why did God choose this path for Jesus to take on humanity and humbling himself to such a level?
- Are there qualities or teachings of Christ that you feel like you need to behold more? How can you become more captivated by Christ and his work?

PRAYER

- Let your prayer time focus on beholding Jesus, reflecting on his sacrifice and the wonder of his human birth.
