LOVING GOD | JANUARY 8, 2023

SERMON RECAP | Matthew 22:36-40

Loving God is the most important thing we can do! Jesus lived this out, therefore it is the first distinctive of how we define a disciple.

THE LEAD IN

- Why is love so critical to your relationships with your spouse, kids, siblings, parents, close friends?

GETTING INTO THE TEXT

- Read Matthew 22:36-40. Why does Jesus say that the most important commandment is to love God? Why would God feel that way that the most important thing that we do is to love Him?
- Deuteronomy 6:4-5 instructs us to love God with all our hearts, souls, and strength. How can we love him with all of each of those things?

GOING DEEPER

- Is your love for God visible in your life? How so? If not, what do you need to do to build your love for God?
- How does your love for God affect your Oikos?

PRAYER

- Praising God is a great way to show our love to God. As you pray together, be sure to spend some time in praise directly solely to Him.
