TEXT: 2 Corinthians 10:1-11; Philippians 2:1-4

1. Share with your group how something you had written had been misunderstood, and then required a "sit-down", face-to-face discussion.
2. When dealing with challenging situations, when should something be written and when should it be done face-to-face?
3. If writing is necessary, what principles should guide you?
4. Why can partnering in the gospel (ministry) be such a relational challenge?
5. How does social media complicate interpersonal relationships?
6. How is one's spirit and attitude key to conversations in one's Oikos?
