Texts: Matthew 6:1-13; Luke Chapters 5, 6, 9, 19

Prayer defined: Conversation between God and man.

1. Is there anything that you can identify that stops you from praying?
2. What does it mean to have a connection with God having sincere words? How might this differ from using flowery words? Does it matter?
3. Prayer is a commitment that church is built on God alone, that God's Kingdom is our goal and we have a lot to learn. What have you learned about God in the last weeks, months or years?
4. How can you pray through the Lord's Prayer with your Oikos in mind? How do you think knowing and understanding the Lord's Prayer could impact your interactions with your Oikos?
